

Getting to know the DANCERS.....Dan Varley

What is your connection to Annunciation?

Ashleigh and I went to preview night a full year before Adele was to start kindergarten and we fell in love with Annunciation school. We changed parishes immediately.

What are some things that you love about Annunciation?

I've always loved the community at Annunciation. It feels like an extension of our home.

What has been the hardest part of learning to dance for DWAS?

The hardest part about learning to dance is that my brain thinks that it is giving instructions to my 20 year-old body. It took me one lesson to realize that there are 2 main competitors in this event, me versus the passage of time.

What has been enjoyable about learning to dance for DWAS?

I think Ashleigh and I will dance more because of this competition.

If you could give one word to describe your dance routine, what would it be? Dangerous
