

Getting to know the DANCERS.....Danielle Crowley

What is your connection to Annunciation?

I am a teacher as well as a parent at Annunciation.

What are some things that you love about Annunciation?

I love the Annunciation community. I love everybody from my teacher peeps to Isela who cleans our rooms at night. Everyone working together to give our kids not just a great education, but also learning to become a thoughtful caring people of the world.

What has been the hardest part of learning to dance for DWAS?

Not dancing as well as I dance in my head.

What has been enjoyable about learning to dance for DWAS?

Nailing the routine for the first time..and all the laughs it took to get there.

If you could give one word to describe your dance routine, what would it be? Happy
