

E-Reader Policy

This year, we are allowing students to use electronic readers (e-readers) on campus. While we are excited that students are using new technology to nurture their love of reading, we do have some rules for the appropriate use of these devices.

Rules for using ereaders

- Annunciation School is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged e-readers. If you bring an e-reader on campus, it is your responsibility to care for it.
- All e-readers must be labeled with the student's first and last name.
- Each student is responsible for his/her own e-reader and is not allowed to lend it to another student while on campus.
- E-readers can be used in class only when the teacher gives the student permission. If a student is using an e-reader at an inappropriate time, the teacher may confiscate it and leave it in the office for the student to pick up after school.
- E-readers are to be used for reading school related material only.
- Any student found to be using his/her e-reader for internet access during class will lose his/her privileges. This means that books must be downloaded off campus, prior to coming to school.
- Material downloaded by each student must be monitored by his/her parents.
- The privilege to use an e-reader can be revoked at any time.
- E-reading devices must be approved by the teacher.

By signing the sheet below, you are giving your student permission to use his/her e-reader on campus in agreement with the rules listed above. Please have your student submit the signed form to his/her language arts/literature teacher. Enjoy reading!

E-reader Agreement

By signing below we acknowledge the guidelines for using e-readers in the classroom at Annunciation School as listed above and agree to abide by the rules.

We also recognize that using an e-reader is a privilege and a responsibility which may be revoked at any time.
